CUSTOMS

New Delhi, the 1st March 1969

G.S.R. 499.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (2) of section 79, read with sub-section (3) of section 160, of the Customs Act, 1962 (52 of 1962), the Central Government hereby makes the following rules further to amend the Passengers (Non-Tourist) Baggage Rules 1960, issued with the notification of the late Central Board of Revenue No. 122-Customs, dated the 19th November, 1960, namely:—

1. (1) These rules may be called the Passengers (Non-Tourist) Baggage (Amendment) Rules, 1969.

(2) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.

2. In the Passengers (Non-Tourist) Baggage Rules, 1960, for rule 7, the following rule shall be substituted, namely:—

“7. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in rule 2, bona fide unaccompanied baggage of a passenger landed at any customs station within two months before his arrival in India may be passed, at the discretion of the proper officer, subject to the conditions and limits laid down in Rules 4 to 6.

Provided that the Assistant Collector of Customs may, in his discretion, extend the time limit for the arrival of the passenger upto four months the Collector of Customs upto six months, and the Central Board of Excise and Customs upto any further time, if the said Assistant Collector, the Collector or the Board, as the case may be, is satisfied that the passenger was prevented by sufficient cause from arriving in India within the aforesaid period of two months.

(2) The proper officer may pass one consignment of bona fide unaccompanied baggage arriving in India after the arrival of the passenger, if it was in his possession abroad and was shipped within a fortnight of the passenger's arrival in India.

(3) The Assistant Collector of Customs may pass one consignment of bona fide unaccompanied baggage, if it was shipped within one month of the passenger's arrival in India; the Collector of Customs may pass any number of consignments of bona fide unaccompanied baggage if they were shipped within six months of the passenger's arrival in India, and the Central Board of Excise and Customs may pass any number of consignments of bona fide unaccompanied baggage without any such time limit, provided the said Assistant Collector, the Collector or the Board, as the case may be, is satisfied that—

- (a) the passenger could not import his said baggage earlier in spite of his having taken all reasonable steps for its importation,
- (b) the nature of the articles in the said baggage, the status of the passenger and all other attendant circumstances suggest that the articles were in the passenger's possession abroad".
